THE 2014 OK CLASSICS REWIND

IMAHIT RUNS AWAY TO WIN SECOND STRAIGHT CLASSICS CUP

C.R. Trout of Edmond, Okla. doubled his career wins in the Oklahoma Classics in just one night. The owner/trainer/breeder of all of his winners came into the 2014 edition with three previous triumphs then promptly won three more including the richest race of the night as Imahit repeated in the Classics Cup, presented by Chickasaw Nation of Oklahoma, powered by TVG.

BRINGINGINTHELUTE WINS THE OKLAHOMA CLASSICS DISTAFF TURF

A group of eight older fillies and mares tested the 7-1/2 furlongs of the $129,425 Classics Distaff Turf, presented by Cherokee Nation Entertainment. C.R. Trout's Bringinginthelute was the first of his three winners on the night, rallying from next to last to score by 2-1/4 lengths.

IMPRESSIVE WIN OF OKLAHOMA CLASSICS JUVENILE BY SHOTGUN KOWBOY

Another impressive C.R. Trout winner was the 2-year-old gelding Shotgun Kowboy in the $85,500 Juvenile, presented by Chickasaw Nation. The Juvenile win on Shotgun Kowboy was the 15th Oklahoma Classics win for Quinonez and his first in the Juvenile.

CHIFFOROBE WINS THE OKLAHOMA CLASSICS SPRINT

Chifforobe was bottled up early but gained a fortunate gap between rivals late in the stretch to win the six-furlong $122,800 Oklahoma Classics Sprint, presented by Kaw Nation, for 3-year-olds and upward. Bred by Chris Duncan & Elizabeth Valando, Owned by Paul Sinclair.

OKIE SMOKEY WINS THE OKLAHOMA CLASSICS DISTAFF

The huge closer Okie Smokey won her second career Classics event, taking the $137,500 Distaff, presented by Easter Shawnee Tribe of Oklahoma. A year ago, Okie Smokey scored in the Lassie as a 2-year-old. Owned and bred by The Richter Family Trust of Perkins, Okla. and trained by Carlos Padilla, Okie Smokey was ridden confidently with a big last to first move by Bryan McNeil.

DIAMOND DISCO WINS THE CLASSICS DISTAFF SPRINT

Diamond Disco shot to the front soon after the start in the $115,000 Oklahoma Classics Distaff Sprint and pulled off an upset win, holding of the 1-5 favorite, More Than Even by a half-length. Owner Danny Caldwell, of Poteau, Okla. claimed Diamond Disco from her breeders 7 Cedars Farm in June of this year for $30,000. She had yet to win in four starts since being claimed, including her last three starts over the turf.

ROBBYTYME WINS THE OKLAHOMA CLASSICS TURF

Robbityme, winless since his August 21, 2013 Remington Park turf win, surged again over the turf course to win the $126,700 OKC Turf Classic, presented by Choctaw Nation. Owned and bred by Darrell Williams of Tulsa, Okla., Robbityme is trained by Kenny Nolen and was ridden by Jose Medina.

The 6-year-old son of Kipling earned $76,020 for his dramatic finish, with a final time of 1:43.19 for the 1-1/16 miles event over firm turf. This was the first year in the history of the Classics that the Turf race was contested at more than one mile.

ZEALOUS VISION WINS THE OKLA- HOMA CLASSICS LASSIE

The $85,500 Lassie, presented by Coors Light, went to Zealous Vision who rolled past the favored Dancing Diva in the stretch to win by 2-1/2 lengths while handling six furlongs in 1:11.08. Owned by Center Hills Farm and Big Sugar Racing, partnership of Pryor, Okla., Zealous Vision is trained by Tim Martin and was ridden by Alex Birzer. The 2-year-old filly broke her maiden against Oklahoma-breds at Remington Park on Aug. 20 before faltering in an open-company allowance event in September.
